Dear Hector:

You are a thoughtful friend. I do appreciate the editorial.

In my present role of chairing the Senate Democratic Campaign Committee, I have had to do a great deal of traveling into a lot of other states. We have to have a net gain of six seats but our chances look reasonably good.

B.A. and I were quite concerned about your health for awhile, but all the reports we have received recently have been excellent and we are pleased to know that you are feeling well. You have such an incredible amount of drive and energy, and I do hope you will put some reasonable limitations on your work.

It has always been an inspiration to me to have your friendship and support.

Regards,

Lloyd Bentsen
