

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

July 27, 1961

Dear Hector:

It sure was good getting to talk with you on Monday and we are grateful for your immediate consideration.

Everything looked so promising for the Vice President to be in Texas about the time of your meeting and then the White House stepped in with other plans for his time.

Thanks again for your quick action and I hope to see you before too long.

Cordially yours,

Clifton C. Carter,
Assistant

Dr. Hector Garcia
